Forecast for Saturday 29 May 2021

Weather: Some patchy low cloud, mist and drizzle overnight, particularly in the west. Any patchy light rain and drizzle will soon die out in the morning with any low cloud lifting and breaking during the morning. Mainly dry and bright through the afternoon and evening with a few sunny breaks developing, although isolated showers possible.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 40% overnight and early morning, becoming 90% by the afternoon.

Visibility: Moderate or poor at first in any mist and drizzle, occasionally very poor over the summits with extensive or occasional cloud, base 300 to 600m, lowest near the coast. Becoming very good by the afternoon with cloud lifting near or above the summits, breaking at times.
